CABINET CHANGES IN RUMANIA

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Bucharest, February 1.
The partial cabinet crisis brought about by the resignation of the finance minister M. Slavescu was solved on Friday by the justice minister M. Antonescu being shifted to the finance ministry while the justice ministry was taken over by the former minister M. Valer Roman.

This reconstruction of the cabinet foreshadows certain changes in Rumania's financial policy, especially the less rigid enforcement of the foreign currency regulation in order to encourage foreign trade and private enterprise.—Transocean Kuo Min.

LLOYD GEORGE'S ENTRY TO GOVERNMENT

London, Feb. 2.
A move to ascertain Mr. Lloyd George's conditions for entering the Government is believed to be in the making, says the "Morning Post's" political correspondent, by a group of Ministers, who are acting on their own initiative. It is understood, with the object of persuading Mr. Lloyd George to withdraw his objections to serving in a Government which includes Messrs. Ramsay MacDonald, Neville Chamberlain and Walter Runciman, but it is believed to be very improbable that they will be able to impose their will on the Cabinet.

WALES BEATS SCOTLAND

Last Minute Rugger Surprise

Cardiff, Feb. 2.
Wales defeated Scotland by 10 points to 6 in the Rugger International played here to-day, victory being gained by a dropped goal almost towards the close.

A crowd of 70,000 attended in spring-like weather after a morning gale and showers.

Cliff Jones opened the scoring with a brilliant try in the seventh minute, and three minutes later Wooler also crossed. Both failed to bring major points.

Scotland decreased the arrears three minutes before the interval when Thom dashed over wide of the posts. The kick, however, failed and Scotland changed over three points in arrears.

Wales resumed without Cliff Jones, who had wrenched an arm muscle, and Scotland soon came on level terms when Shaw broke through for Fyfe to fall with the kick.

A few minutes before the end Jenkins dropped a magnificent goal from 40 yards to give Wales the victory by 10 points to 6.—Reuter.

DESERTING IN MID-OCEAN

An Amazing Story

An amazing story of a fireman's attempt to desert his ship when in mid-ocean, and how he was picked up next morning when sailing on his way to Africa, was told by officers of the Calchas, when that vessel put in at Kobe recently.

The incident took place off the coast of Sokotra, off North Africa, and the deserter apparently intended to land on the inhospitable North African shore.

Captain G. Leslie, D.S.C., master of the Calchas, told a reporter that early on the morning of December 12th, a wireless message was received from the Harmanth reporting the loss of the ship's dinghy, and the disappearance of Fireman S.F. Law.

"At 4.30 a.m. discovered ship's dinghy missing also one fireman, probably disappeared at 1.30 a.m., position 11.49 N.

SIR MARTIN ARCHER SHEE DEAD

Dismissed Boy Cadet Who Was Proved To Be Innocent

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 12. A famous lawsuit is recalled by the death at his home at Sunninghill, Ascot, of Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Martin Archer-Shee, who was Conservative M.P. for Finsbury 1910-23.

Sir Martin was the half-brother of Cadet George Archer-Shee, whose dismissal from the Royal Naval College, Osborne, caused one of the most talked of legal struggles in the period before the war.

In October, 1908, the boy's father received a letter from the Lords of the Admiralty saying that his son had stolen a 5s. postal order, forged his name on it to cash it and that he must be withdrawn from the college.

Championed by Lord Carson, George Archer-Shee, who was thirteen at the time, denied that he had stolen the money. An inquiry was held at which the young cadet swore his innocence. But he was not believed and he left the college.

Then it was that his father started the long and bitter fight to establish his son's innocence.

He approached Lord Carson (then Sir Edward Carson) who became interested in the case and won great fame for the manner in which he conducted it.

The Admiralty were first approached with a request for a judicial inquiry which was refused.

In July, 1910, the case came into the courts on a Petition of Right, Lord Carson claiming that the boy had been dismissed without reason.

The case was stopped by the judge on a point of law. Lord Carson described this ruling as a public scandal and walked angrily out of the court in disgust.

Lord Carson then took the case to the Court of Appeal, which ordered it to be retried before a Judge and jury without delay before any legal objections were raised.

Nine days later—two years after the incident—the case came before Mr. Justice Phillimore and a special jury.

After four days, packed with bitter exchanges between Lord Carson and the Solicitor-General, Sir Rufus Isaacs (now Lord Reading), the Crown withdrew the charge.

It was one of the most dramatic moments ever known in the Law Courts when the Solicitor-General rose and said that the Admiralty accepted the declaration of Cadet George Archer-Shee that he had not written the name on the postal order, that he had not taken it, and that he had not cashed it.

The Admiralty, he said, were convinced of his innocence.

But the case was not yet over. Further litigation began with regard to costs and damages.

The matter was even raised in Parliament, and Sir Martin Archer-Shee, who was a member at that time, spoke in defence of his young half-brother. He also gave evidence in court.

Death From Wounds

Eventually Cadet Archer-Shee's father was paid £7,120 by way of compensation, but shortly afterwards he died; his death was said to be due to the strain of the long legal struggle on his son's behalf.

The boy, George Archer-Shee, unable to get into the Navy, joined the Army, and was a Lieutenant of the 1st South Staffordshire Regiment when he died from wounds received at Ypres in 1915.

He was only nineteen and a half years old, and the officer commanding the regiment, writing about him at the time, said: "By his bravery and example he contributed largely to the success of

STANDING ARMY OF HIS OWN

The "Red Hackle"

(Special Air Mail Service)

Edinburgh, Jan. 12.

The Duke of Atholl is to be the guest of honour at this year's Black Watch dinner on January 19.

The Duke has a fine record as a soldier, having seen active service in Egypt, South Africa and Gallipoli. He is honorary colonel of the third battalion of the Black Watch, in which he served for three years as a subaltern.

His presence will give the dinner a special significance. The alternative title of the Black Watch is the Royal Highlanders. Thus Royal Highlanders will be entertaining the chieftain of the Atholl Highlanders. The Duke is the only peer in Britain who by special charter is allowed to maintain a standing army of his own.

"Pillaging" the Duke Black Watch dinners are always distinguished by free speaking. The Duke should have inherited an ample fund of stories from his father, a great character, who was once turned down by the Turf Club.

The incident gave rise to a popular story of forty years ago. The day after the club committee meeting another Scottish peer arrived at the Turf.

"Any news to-day, Shand?" said the Scottish peer to the famous hall porter, a fellow Scot.

"News, your lordship!" said the indignant Shand. "They've pillaged the Duke and elected a damned brewer-er!"

The brewer was Lord Burton.

the battalion in the actions near Ypres."

Sir Martin (then Major) Archer-Shee was immensely popular in his constituency when he came back from the war, and was presented with a jewelled sword in recognition of his services. He was made a knight in 1923.

In 1905 he married Miss Francis Pell, of New York, who inherited a fortune from her father.

MUTUAL LIFE ASSOCIATION

Brighter Outlook In Australia

Another highly successful year is reported by the directors of the National Mutual Life Association of Australasia, Limited. During the accounting period which closed on September 30, 1934, 23,058 new policies were issued, assuring £9,119,607. New annual premiums on the policies issued amounted to £329,488, single premiums totalled £63,274, and the consideration for 98 annuity policies amounted to £83,048, securing incomes to annuitants of £2,243 per annum. Death claims during the year, under 1502 policies, together with bonus additions, amounted to £982,809, and matured endowments and endowment assurances amounted to £1,169,968. Altogether the amount payable to policy-holders or their representatives during the year was £2,857,242.

As the result of the year's transactions a sum of £1,607,832 was added to the assurance fund, which at the close of the year amounted to £37,851,006. The income for the year was £4,902,114, of which premiums amounted to £3,300,482 and interest, rents, and fees £1,601,631. During the sixty-five years of its existence the National Mutual has paid in claims £32,532,080, and the amount assured under policies now current is £89,184,459. During these 65 years, £61,221,000 has been received in premiums, and bonuses distributed amount to £16,200,000.

Surrenders were £91,900 less than in 1933 and bonuses cashed were £10,400 less.

The most significant of these figures is the reduction in the amount paid to members for the surrender of their policies.

This, following the reduction reported at our last meeting, may be taken as an indication that the general conditions of the members are improving, and our members are not being driven to realise on what is, in most cases, their most valuable asset. Members joining this Mutual

PACIFIC AIR MAIL PLAN

Final Preparations For Test Flights

New York, Jan. 22. Rapid progress towards early inauguration of the trans-Pacific air mail service was reported to-day by executives of Pan-Americans Airways.

Officials of the aviation company confirmed that terminals will soon be established in California, from which experimental flights to China will be made.

Mr. Igor Sikorsky, designer of the giant transport planes which will be employed in the trans-Pacific service, is planning to fly to California within two or three weeks to make final preparations for the first test flights.

For the past month, Mr. Sikorsky has been at Miami, Fla., superintending tests of the four huge planes ordered by Pan-American for use on the route from California to Hawaii, Midway Island, Guam, Manila and Canton.

Plans of Pan-American officials call for two trips weekly each way, with the long journey being made in 72 hours.

Life Association are entitled to votes as the Association belongs to them.

It should be noted that the National Mutual's operations are entirely confined to ordinary assurance, and the business does not include industrial assurance. The association's growth during recent years is remarkable, and speaks well for the efficiency of the management.

It was the first office in the world to apply the surrender value of life policies towards paying overdue premiums to prevent policies from lapsing until the surrender-value is exhausted. The association ranks as one of the leading institutions of the Commonwealth, and with the general return of more prosperous conditions it should find increased scope for its already extensive operations.

THE NEW SOUTH AFRICAN XI

Strong All-Round Side

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 12.

South Africa has chosen the following 15 players for the tour of England next season:—

H. F. Wade (captain) (Natal), H. B. Cameron (vice-captain) (Transvaal), I. J. Siedle (Natal), B. Mitchell (Transvaal), A. D. Nourse (Natal), E. L. Dalton (Natal), E. A. B. Rowan (Transvaal), R. J. Williams (Natal), R. J. Crisp (Western Province), A. J. Bell (Rhodesia), C. L. Vincent (Transvaal), K. G. Viljoen (Orange Free State), X. Balaskas (Western Province), D. Tomlinson (Rhodesia), A. B. C. Langton (Transvaal).

Fine All-Round Side

The selectors have sprung a real surprise by choosing a little-known player in A. B. C. Langton, states a correspondent. He is a medium-pace bowler and a forcing batsman. Other surprise selections are R. J. Williams, as reserve wicket-keeper, and D. Tomlinson, a leg-break bowler, who is the first Rhodesian to play for South Africa. This is considered to be one of the strongest all-round teams ever to leave South Africa. It is certainly the first really "turf-educated" team sent abroad, all the players having developed their game on turf wickets. In fact, performances on turf have weighed heavily with the selectors.

In batting the side is well up to the average. It is slightly stronger in this department than the team which toured Australia, because it contains a first-class opening pair in the captain, H. F. Wade, and I. J. Siedle, who are in the habit of going in first for their province. In regard to bowling they will rely chiefly on spin bowlers. These include googly bowlers in B. Mitchell and X. Balaskas, the latter of whom was coached by C. V. Grimmett. There are also E. L. Dalton (slow right hand), C. L. O. Vincent (slow left hand), and D. Tomlinson. The fast bowler of the side is R. J. Crisp, who takes many wickets with a slower ball which breaks back. A. J. Bell, the best turf-wicket bowler in South Africa, A. B. C. Langton, and A. D. Nourse, the son of "Dave," are medium-paced bowlers.

DAME LOUISA LUMSDEN

Life Dedicated To Feminist Movement

If Dame Louisa Lumsden became pioneer in the work of securing for women their place in the modern world, it was because, through intellectual capacity and force of character, she was herself a pioneer in achievement. Much of the success of the infant Girton was due to the fact that she and another were the first two women to pass the Cambridge Classical Tripos, thereby refuting the critics who had maintained that women would not justify the opportunities that were being opened up to them. Her subsequent work as first head mistress of St. Leonard's and as first Warden of the University Hall for women students at St. Andrews made certain that for others these educational opportunities, so rare in her own youth, would be assured and developed.

The Suffragette Movement

In a life dedicated to the feminist movement it was inevitable that the suffragette cause should find a place. But it was also inevitable that, with such solid achievements behind her, Miss Lumsden should have taken a much more balanced view of the crusade for votes for women than did many of its leaders. In her autobiography, "Yellow Leaves," published in 1933, she recorded her attitude thus:—

"The militant movement never came so far as Aberdeen. The only suffragette I ever heard, Christabel Pankhurst, did not impress me in the least. She came to Aberdeen, scolded us and bored me. When Whitekirk was burned I was furious and wrote her a reproachful letter. 'How could anybody defend such an action?'

"THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO"

Alexandre Dumas' Immortal Story
Coming Shortly To The King's

Alexandre Dumas could have written his own ticket as the world's highest-paid scenarist. If he had been born a hundred years later.

This is the opinion of Rowland V. Lee, ace Hollywood director, whose most recent assignment was Harry M. Goetz and Edward Small's million dollar Reliance production of "THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO." released through United Artists coming shortly to the King's Theatre.

"Dumas' stories are perfect screen material," declared Lee. "His characters are so vital with his plots build and move with such powerful action that they are as intensely entertaining today as they were when crowds waited outside Paris newspaper offices for the next installment of his romantic thrillers."

Was Hero of Paris
He was at the zenith of his fame and powers as the greatest novelist of his day when he wrote "The Count of Monte Cristo," the favorite hero of Paris, with best-sellers literally rolling from his pen, and his private life as romantic and thrilling as his stories.

"Dumas got the title from an island which his boat had passed in the course of a Mediterranean cruise. He had been unable to land because the island was 'en comurace'—wilfully disobedient to a lawful order of a judicial or legislative body.

"The incident and the name of the island stuck in his mind, and a few years later, in 1843, he arranged with an editor for the publication of a work for which he needed a romantic plot. One day he read a short story, "Le Diamant et la Vengeance," laid in the period of the second Bourbon Restoration, which intrigued him. The idea for a great Dumas plot began taking shape.

Had Facile Pen
"What had started out to be ravel impressions in the form of a romance, now became romance pure and simple. The love affair of Edmond Dantes and the fair Mercedes, played by Robert Donat and Elissa Landi in the film, the treacherous schemes of de Villefort, (Louis Calhern), Danglars (Raymond Walburn) and Mondego (Sidney Blackmer); the grim happenings in the Chateau d'If; chapter after chapter flowed from his pen as he wove the whole into a prodigious popular masterpiece.

"It is a matter of record that Paris waited breathlessly each morning for a new installment of 'The Count of Monte Cristo' to appear in 'Le Journal des Debats.' It was first published in novel form in the middle 1840's, and since then it has been the most widely read piece of fiction, year in and year out, in every country of the world.

"Dumas, like Shakespeare, created history and made legends come to life, and his character, will be as real to future generations as they are to this one."

A scene from "The Count of Monte Cristo" starring Robert Donat.

AT THE QUEEN'S THE GAY BRIDE

Laurel and Hardy
Picture

"Babes In Toyland" featuring Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy is one of the funniest talking picture attractions for some time. The picture commenced yesterday at The Queen's Theatre and drew good audiences at each screening.

The film is a laugh riot from beginning to end and although some attempt has been made by the producers at a theme, this is completely overshadowed by the antics of Laurel and Hardy who are the heroes of the story.

The scene takes place in "Toyland" and the photography is excellent. Laurel and Hardy are "fired" when they mess up an order from Santa Claus.

The mortgage on Widow Peep's home is held by Barnaby, the only villain in the Kingdom of Toyland. A sinister figure, he insists that either the Widow Peep pay up or give the hand of her daughter (Bo-Peep) to him, although she is fifty years his junior.

Laurel and Hardy sets out to foil the villain and the way they set about this task provides the theme for much hilarious entertainment.

The beautiful rendition of Victor Herbert's stirring musical and vocal numbers is a decided highlight of this film, to say nothing of the really gorgeous settings.

"Babes In Toyland" is a very appropriate picture to present during the present season and Laurel and Hardy certainly enhanced their reputation in the eyes of local "talkie" fans as a result of the screening of this picture in Hong Kong.

Current Attraction
At The Queen's

The last laugh on America's racketeers provides "rib-tickling" comedy in "The Gay Bride," fastest moving farce of the year recently completed by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios with Carol Lombard and Chester Morris featured. It will be seen shortly at the Queen's Theatre. The story, written by Charles Francis Coe, deals with the hilarious difficulties of racketeers after repeal when their enormous profits have been cut off. To add to their troubles an adventurous blonde discovers the gold-digging possibilities among the vicious but dumb gentry of the underworld.

Carol Lombard gives sparkle and zest to her role as Blonde Mary, who knows from whence the gold can be dug. Chester Morris, as an ambitious young man who attends to clerical duties in a racketeer's "hangout" while saving money to get up a garage, is a powerful male lead.

The notable supporting cast is headed by Zazu Pitts, who wins gales of laughter with her performance as Mirabelle, the girl who knows too much about racketeer love to live long; Leo Carrillo provides menace as Mickey, "double-crossing" bodyguard; Nat Pendleton is a dumb but god-humoured chieftain who loses his illicit gains to blonde Mary; Sam Hardy, a gruff and convincing fellow who is known as Dingle, aspires to the racket throne.

Bella and Samuel Spewack have written a hilarious and entertaining screen play from the widely read "Doc" story, originally known as "Repeal."

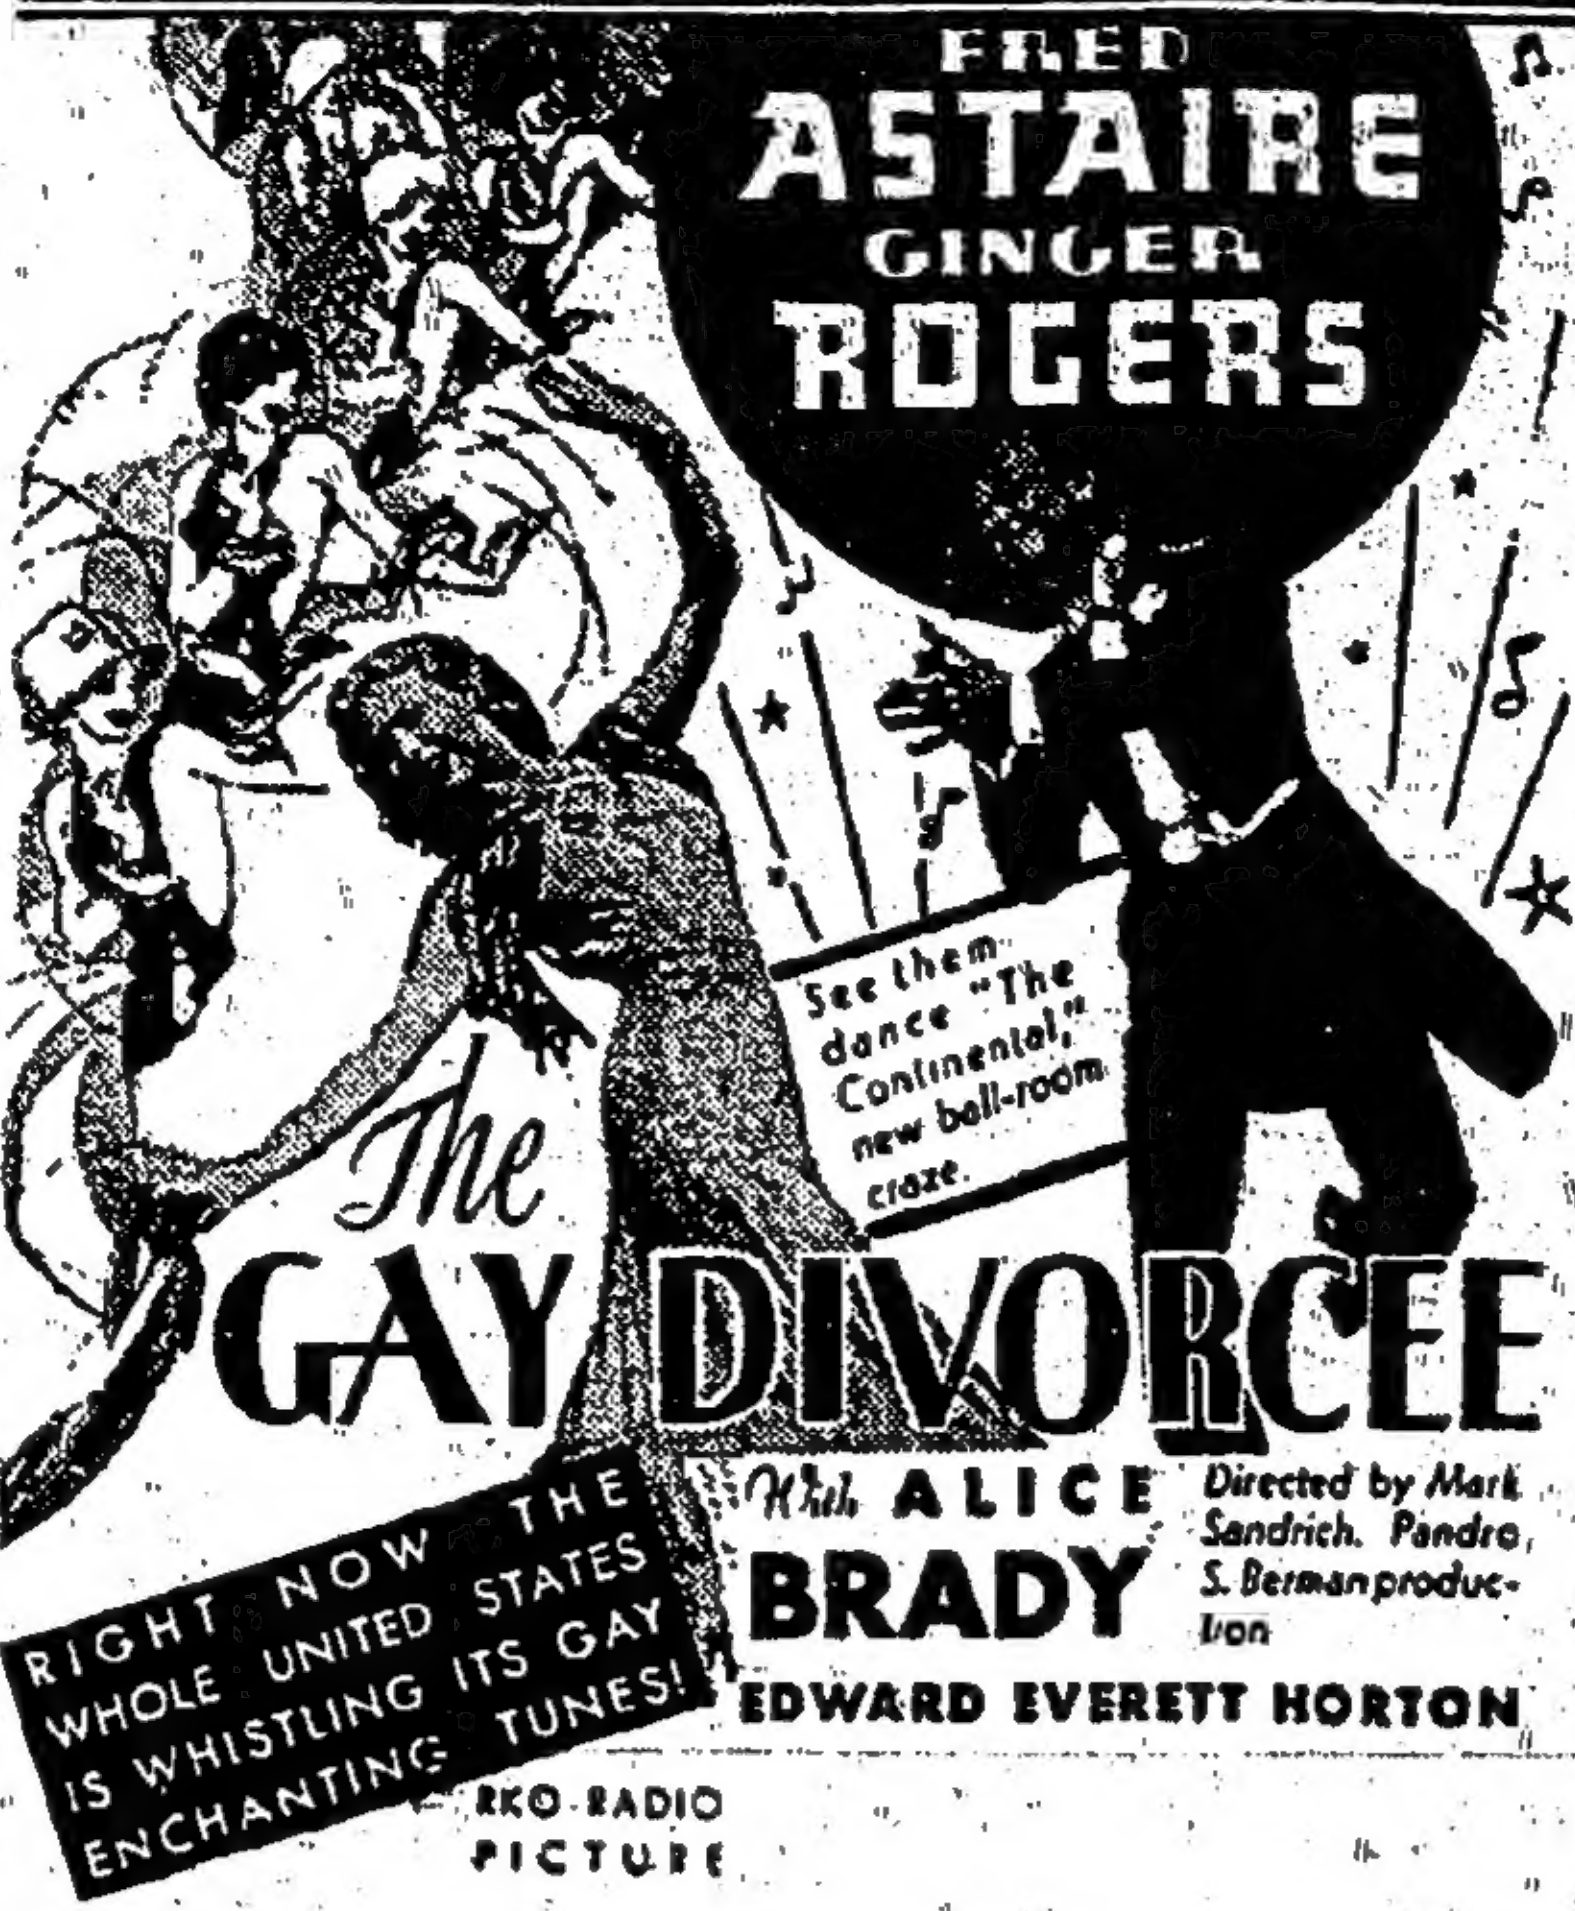

The directorial skill of Jack Conway is very evident in the breathless and interest gripping tempo of the picture which rises to a smashing climax of thrills and laughter.

THE GAY DIVORCEE

Showing To-day At The King's

The Gay Divorcee showing at the King's to-day was previewed last week and being one of the privileged few I thoroughly enjoyed the production. R.K.O. Radio Films are to be congratulated on such a marvellous production. Not only did the story keep everybody interested and amused but also the music was snappy and full of pep. And the "Continental" the new sensational dance, as danced by Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, was wonderfully demonstrated, and kept one spell bound.

The staging of the various dances was excellent; the choruses being wonderfully trained, and compare very favourably with the best Paris "Revue." The Doll Dance was fascinating and original. The costumes were excellent creations and suited their pretty wearers. It was interesting to have present one of the Hollywood Blondes (recently performing in Hong Kong), Eleanor Walton, seeing herself in this film. Our best advice is on no account to miss "The Gay Divorcee."

AT THE STAR

Shoot The Works

The inimitable Jack Oakie with his Missouri accent and wisecracks, and Ben Bernie's music are the principal features in the hilariously funny "Shoot The Works," the Paramount comedy which is showing at the Star Theatre to-day.

The film is a comedy in rapid tempo. It takes music, song, romance—and a grand cast through a tempest of action which speeds its characters through side-shows, flea circuses, carnivals and the radio world, with intimate glimpses of each.

Oakie is pictured as a glib-tongued promoter of freak shows and flagpole sitting championships, with "side excursions into twilight romances. Between business failures and forbidden kisses, he meets up with a beautiful singer, and is headed for the straight road when the dice throw him, and he loses his girl.

Oakie wins her later, but not until after many genuinely comic characters, and an occasional bit of real romance and pathos weave through the playing of five out-in and out of the plot. Highlights in a secondary plot are Ben Bernie, the gag-spouting maestro, who leads his well-known lads in a story that is almost like a biography of the man himself. His music is both delightful and original.

Hysterically funny is Roscoe Karns, in the role of a goofy stunt flagpole sitter who is in a constant turmoil about his philanthropic sweetie while he stays aloft to win a sitting championship.

Sterling performances are given by Allison Skipworth, as Oakie's faithful and unofficial mother, and by William Frawley, who portrays a famous gossiping columnist.

But the palms for this rollicking film go out to Oakie, Ben Bernie and the director, Wesley Ruggles, who made a splendid job of directing this film from the successful play by Ben Hecht and Gene Fowler.

This film serves to establish Ben Bernie and his collection of musical lads. The Maestro is fortunate in having a good picture and story for his screen debut and he makes the most of his opportunities in a role secondary only to Oakie's. The radio star gives considerable lift and jazz to the film through the playing of five out-

FINE MUSICAL ROMANCE

Happiness Ahead At The Alhambra

Yet another musical romance has come out from the studios of Warner Bros., and this one rivaling those of its predecessors, Dames, 32nd Street, etc., etc.

Happiness Ahead, now showing at the Alhambra Theatre, glorifies one of the few unsung heroes of modern life—the widow washer.

This picture boasts of a new team in Dick Powell and Josephine Hutchinson.

The picture has five song hits all cleverly put over by Dick Powell and a duet between him and Frank McHugh who, incidentally, provides most of the league in this picture. The catchy airs will get you and after viewing the picture you will be humming its tunes.

In "Happiness Ahead," these darling widow washers and pall performers not only do their stunts, but engage in hair raising fights with deadly enemies. Dick Powell, as the brave young widow washer, and Josephine Hutchinson, as the beautiful cause of his heart throbs, are the leading figures in this unusual big city romance and Frank McHugh, Dorothy Dare, John Halliday, Allen Jenkins, Ruth Donnelly, Majorie Gateson, Russell Hicks, J. M. Kerrigan, and others all gave excellent support to this excellent entertainment. Happiness Ahead will chase all your blues away and here's a real show for your money.

standing songs. "With My Eyes Wide Open," "Do I Love You?" "Were Your Ears Burning?" "In the Good Old Winter Time" and "A Bowl of Chop Suey and You're." All things considered, there isn't an idle moment in the film. It is a comedy heartily recommended to people who want to laugh.

"TIN CAN MAIL"

Postal Arrangements

In Isolated Island

Sydney.

With the utmost nonchalance we drop a letter in the mail box, and the fear that it will not reach its destination never occurs to us.

Not so, however, with the "Tin Can Mail." The odds are against delivery of a letter posted via this novel route.

But a rare specimen reached Sydney recently bearing the stamp "Tin Can Mail."

The Can or Niuatou Island is a small dot in the Tongan Group, with a population of about 1,100 natives and two white men.

Surrounded by treacherous reefs, and subject during the whole year to very bad weather, the island is almost completely isolated, although only 10 miles off the regular shipping route.

The letter was received by Mr. Noel Rea, of Belwin Street, Paddington, near Sydney, from his mother, Mrs. Laura Mack Rea.

"Posted" from the steamer Monterey, along with a number of others together with money for postage, it was placed in a sealed tin can and dropped overboard near the island.

For once the weather was favourable, and the can floated in, where it was opened the letters stamped and forwarded by came to the nearest regular mail station.

The stamp bears the date December 19, 1934, and on the back there are two other stamps, one bearing the name "W. G. Quinn" and the other "C. C. M. Man."

TRAINING GALLOPS Fast Work by Australian Candidates

(BY "MORNING DEW")

There were comparatively few gallops on Saturday morning, but as owners were trying out their ponies on Thursday, and a few on Friday, the times of these gallops have been included below.

It will be seen that Derby Day, one of this season's Australians, went over a mile and a quarter in very convincing time, finishing on the bit in 29.2 seconds. Goldsmith and Halcyon also registered convincing times.

Harvest View covered a fast mile, but finished poorly. Herod once again moved convincingly, while Soldier of Honour went over a mile, finishing a little better than on Wednesday.

The times taken on Thursday and on Saturday were as follows—

MISTAKE BAY

Dunbar Griffin Goes
Derby Distance

BIG ATTENDANCE AT THE RAILS

Yesterday morning, due to the fact that there will be no training to-day and tomorrow, there was a full tryout of the course. The times for the second half of last week are given elsewhere in this issue, but many interesting gallops were seen at the rails, where a record attendance saw Mr. L. Dunbar's Derby candidate, Mistake Bay go over the full Derby distance under Mr. Leo Frost. The pony took 5.18 for the whole journey finishing in 32.

Mr. Frost also tried out Pontiac Bay and The Bean Goose, the latter a very promising Australian. Mr. F. Marshall who arrived on Saturday from Shanghai tried out Trowbridge, Foxbridge and King's Jubilee, besides riding some of Mr. "Dynasty's" subs.

Mr. S. Y. Sun was in the saddle on most of the "Soldier" candidates, trying out Soldier of Honour and Soldier of Victory. The former did not run at all well while the latter finished very tired over a mile and a quarter with Soldier of China.

Mr. D. S. Li tried out many of the "Star" ponies but was content with slow work. Mr. H. S. Pih rode the "Views," but his most interesting gallop was on Derby Day, who moved exceptionally well over a mile, finishing strongly.

Mr. C. E. Kierulff took out Mr. Ho Kom Tong's string of Derby griffins, and amongst others tried

1936 OLYMPIC GAMES

India's Plans

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Indian Olympic Association, it was decided that at the Olympic Games in Berlin in 1936 India should compete in athletics, wrestling, gymnastics, swimming and water polo.

The cost of sending representatives was estimated at Rs. 45,000, and the committee resolved to issue an appeal for funds. The committee also decided that the secretary of the Indian Olympic Association should approach the Indian Hockey Federation, who will also be competing in Berlin, to consider the desirability of issuing a joint appeal.

The next Indian Olympic Games will be held in February, and it was announced that they would be held on the metric system. The venue will be Gwalior, or if Gwalior cannot stage the Games, the athletics, basketball and wrestling will be held at Lahore the swimming in Calcutta.

The committee decided to encourage women's swimming and if possible, to include a women's swimming championship in the next Games.

out Pacific Hall and Victoria Hall. Both moved well.

Mr. V. V. Needa tried out Diogenes, Rose Queen and Roseanna, as well as Lucky Strike, who took him over a very speedy six furlongs.

Mr. Peter Ho tried out amongst others Double Chance, one of the best subs in training.

Mr. B. L. Tiao was also at work

LESSON SERMON

First Church Of Christ, Scientist-
Hong Kong

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday February 3rd, 1935.

The Golden Text was "Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another." (1 John 4: 11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." (Matthew 6: 19-21).

The Lesson Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Who hath found finite life or love sufficient to meet the demands of human want and woe, — to still the desire to satisfy the aspirations? Infinite Mind cannot be limited to a finite form, or Mind would lose its infinite character as inexhaustible Love, eternal Life, omnipotent Truth: Starting from a higher standpoint, one rises spontaneously, even as light emits light without effort; for 'where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.' p. 257: p. 262:.)

Being known to them as a broker the defendant was allowed to have the deer horns accompanied by a foki who carried it for him.

ARMS INQUIRY CHAIRMAN

Three Likely Names Mentioned

(Special Air Mail Service)
London, Jan. 12.
Soon after his return to London, the Prime Minister will consider the chairmanship of the Arms Inquiry.

Naturally he will do so in close collaboration with Sir John Simon, as this is a subject which falls particularly within the province of the Foreign Office.

The name of Lord Macmillan has been mentioned as the most likely choice. Certainly there can be few men with greater qualifications.

In the last ten years he has been chairman of ten Royal Commissions, committees and courts of inquiry. Of these the most important was the Treasury Committee on Finance and Industry set up in 1929, the report of which was published in 1931.

Well in the teens two other prominent public men particularly associated with governmental inquiries are Lord Lindlithgow and Lord Amulree.

Lord Lindlithgow has had four chairmanships, including the highly important ones of the Indian Agricultural Commission and the Joint Select Committee on India Constitutional Reform.

Lord Amulree has an imposing list of chairmanships of various kinds to his credit, of running well into the teens. In bridge terms, however, they represent length rather than strength. His most recent was the Royal Commission on Newfoundland.

HELP FOR BRITISH SHIPPING

In announcing terms upon which it is proposed to grant a subsidy to British tramp shipping, the British Government shows that its desire is not to make this subsidy very large, or lasting, or unconditional. The amount, not to exceed $2,000,000, will diminish as freight rates rise, to disappear if they rise high enough. It is payable in the first place only for a year. It is granted on the condition, at present deemed to have been fulfilled, that shipowners organize to avoid harmful competition.

The subsidy, as a measure of protection, has been thrust upon the British Government and shipping industry, both being reluctant to have recourse to artificial stimulus. It became necessary, owing to combined effects of the slump in international trade and excesses of economic nationalism which have led one country after another to spend huge sums of money in subsidizing their own nationals. Such expenditures have added to the glut of ships at the very time when the use for ships was reduced.

The British Government is holding out big inducements to its shipowners to scrap old vessels and construct more economical ones. Britain, dependent on ocean-going trade, cannot afford to have any but the most economical ships, and is unwilling to be driven off the ocean by foreign under-cutting due to subsidies. But she is aware that the present form of international competition does harm to everyone, and her shipowners will make the utmost efforts for understanding in their talks with foreign shipowners at the forthcoming International Conference in Berlin.

FINANCIAL AID FOR SHANTUNG

Banks Invest In Reconstruction

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Shanghai, Jan. 29.
According to local financial circles, final arrangements seem to have been reached at the recent conference held between Mr. Chang Hung-lieh, Commissioner for Reconstruction of Shantung, Mr. Ling Kang-hou, Secretary-General of the Shanghai Bankers' Association, and Mr. Tsou Ping-wen, member of the Cotton Control Commission of the National Economic Council, regarding the proposed investment by Shanghai banks towards various reconstruction projects to be undertaken by the Shantung Provincial Government.

As the first step, it is understood that local banks will invest $800,000 to finance the first stage of reconstruction work on the projected siphon irrigation system on the silted area at Taoshu district along the southern bank of the Yellow River.

Regarding the proposed sale of the Poshan Light Railway, Mr. Chang told the press that, as a result of consultations with Mr. Tseng Chung-min, Vice-Minister of Railways, the price, originally set at $1,500,000, has been reduced to $1,000,000. The Reconstruction Commissioner arrived at Nanking from here yesterday, and is now conferring with the Ministry of Railways and the Management of the Kiaochow-Tsinan Railway with the object of expediting the deal. After the transfer of the Poshan Light Railway, Mr. Chang said, an extension will be made to Laiwu and Sintai to facilitate the transportation of coal produced in those districts.

Furthermore, it is learnt, that the National Economic Council has undertaken to appropriate $2,000,000 for the contemplated dredging of the Hsiaotingho (River), which is to be paid to the Provincial Government in three instalments.

ILLEGAL TAXES ABOLISHED

Government To Help With Subsidies

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Nanking, Jan. 29.
A total of 2,600 illegal taxes, not authorised by the National Government, and representing an annual amount of over $18,000,000, has been abolished in the various provinces and municipalities, according to Mr. Kao Ping-fang, Director of the Revenue Department of the Ministry of Finance, in his report at the weekly memorial service yesterday.

Committees for the supervision of tax collection have been established in ten provinces, and more will be formed, he said.

To assist the provincial governments in making up for the deficits incurred through the abolition of exorbitant taxes, the Government is now remitting monthly subsidies. The frontier provinces are receiving the first consideration. Thus, Ninghsia receives $15,000, and Shanghai (Kokonor) $10,000 monthly from the State treasury.

STAR FERRIES IN COLLISION

Two "Star" ferries, the Meridian Star and Solar Star, were involved in a collision at about 12.54 yesterday afternoon.

The Meridian Star was crossing over from Kowloon and the Solar Star from Hong Kong. In mid-harbour, when trying to avoid a launch that had come between them, the ferries collided despite all the coxswains could do to prevent it. Some damage was done to both ferries.

If Gossip We Must

(By "CHANCE")

Kung Hay Fat Choy (A Happy New Year) to all my Chinese friends, and to the foreign ones too, a happy new year with plenty of "choy" thrown in. The Chinese community have been very busy preparing for the New Year and one feature of it is that their foreign friends have also joined in the fun so that Hong Kong has been in holiday mood for the last two days and will continue to be so till Wednesday. One good thing about this Chinese New Year is that it falls on a Monday so that it means three and a half days away from the office—oh, how I hate that word!

As you all must be aware, this year the bazaar was held in Gloucester Road and though it was perhaps better than the previous one, it was nothing like the ones that were held in Jervois Street in the good old days before the depression swallowed us up. Still it is no use crying over spilt milk so I will turn to something more cheerful.

The "festivities" actually started on Monday last when a Bridge Drive was held at the Peninsula Hotel under the patronage of Lady Peel who afterwards distributed the prizes. It was a most enjoyable afternoon and the management is to be congratulated on the efficient way in which the arrangements were made. The drive was arranged to raise funds for the Benevolent Society and as there were about 150 people present, it is to be hoped that a handsome sum may be handed over to the Society who are doing such excellent work here.

YACHT CLUB DANCE

The Yacht Club held its annual dinner dance on Friday night at the Peninsula Hotel and it was unanimously voted a great success. Both the Rose Room and the Roof Garden were filled to capacity while Mr. A. L. Shields and Mr. and Mrs. Rouse had large parties, their tables being decorated with models of their respective boats. Miss Readhead was very charming in a pale green dress while Vera Hodgson's pale blue frock was extremely becoming and Yvonne Shenton's dress of gold tissue was the object of much admiration.

ROTARIANS FOREGATHER

The Rotary Club chose a very good day (or should I say night?) for their annual dance which was also held at the Peninsula Hotel. This took place on Saturday night and the president of the Club, Mr. M. K. Lo, had a large number of friends at his table.

Mr. Lo read out a message from the Canton Club and in the course of his speech said that he would "call T. B. Wilson's bluff." Mr. Lo said that Mr. Wilson had asked him (the speaker) that evening to sing a song and he would make the speech. Mr. Lo said he could not sing two notes in tune whereupon Mr. Wilson undertook to do exactly the opposite of whatever the president did. "So, despite the fact that the Directors had decided there were to be no speeches," Mr. Lo said he had to say a few words "to call Mr. Wilson's bluff."

Mr. Wilson in reply called it a dirty trick but in a true sportsmanlike style, he gave a rendering of that popular ditty, "Bye-bye Blackbird." Harry Hong Sing made a good leader in the community singing that followed (it is not unusual for Harry to sing) while the dancing also proved very enjoyable.

THE FOOTBALL MATCH

The much-discussed football match between the Stock Exchange and the Sharebrokers Association is now a thing of the past and once again the Stock Exchange emerged victorious. Some gave the coat of arms outside the main entrance to the Stock Exchange, a bull and a bear, as the reason why the other team were so timid of getting near the opponents' goal. There were many people present at the match including Mrs. Bebe Harriman who afterwards gave away the shield, Mrs. Joseph, Mrs. Charlton, Mesdames Yi and Wong, and although they did not appear to know much about football, the particular brand dished out that afternoon provided plenty of amusement for the ladies.

THE NEW DANCE TEAM

The two new dance team, Janet and Harlan, made their debut at the Hong Kong Hotel on Saturday night when as usual, a large number of people gathered to dine and dance. The newcomers were good and they provided something different to what we have been used to and that made their items all the more acceptable. Janet was really good and I liked her "slow kicks." It was marvellous, the way she kicked slowly over her own head and then down again.

WOMEN'S "DAVIS CUP"

Suggested Expansion Of The Wightman Cup

The latest suggestion is an expansion of the Wightman Cup competition, at present exclusively for the women players of Great Britain and of U.S.A., to embrace all the other tennis-playing countries, on the lines of the Davis Cup writes a correspondent.

I don't think so. It would be too much of a good thing, and I doubt whether there would be tremendous interest in an all-women's competition. As things are at the moment, with the competition staged in Britain and U.S.A. in alternate years, it is just sufficient. It does not interfere to any great extent with the "principal" cham-

ANGLO-FRENCH TALKS IN LONDON

Defensive Air Convention Agreement

London, Feb. 2. The Anglo-French talks were adjourned at 11.45 p.m. until tomorrow afternoon.

Sir John Simon informed Reuters that the discussions were proceeding very well.

GOOD PROGRESS

London, Feb. 3. It is learned that a substantial measure of agreement has already been reached. The main points will be expanded to-day and issued later in an official communiqué. Conversations will be resumed at 4.30 p.m.

M. Laval has postponed his departure until Monday.

HOPE OF AGREEMENT

London, Feb. 3. It is learned from an authoritative source that an agreement was expected to be reached at the resumed discussion in the afternoon and a communiqué has been issued covering the subjects discussed.

It is impossible to give further details as it is essential that time should be allowed to inform other Governments interested before publication.

In the meanwhile conversations are proceeding very satisfactorily. The delay is due to courtesy in informing other Governments, and not to any disagreement.

AIR DEFENCE

Paris, Feb. 3. The special correspondent of "Havas" in London declares that a Franco-British agreement is certain to be reached.

It is believed that the military clauses of the Versailles Treaty will be abolished except as regards demilitarisation of the left bank of the Rhine.

A defensive Franco-British air convention was agreed to.

It is forecast that the return of Germany to Geneva will be one of the points in the agreement and that Germany, Belgium and Italy will be asked to adhere to the Anglo-French defensive air convention.

The Danubian and Eastern pacts will be signed.

FRENCH OFFER

London, Feb. 3. Information obtained in the morning appears to confirm the Paris report as to the lines of agreement cabled earlier, a general convention limiting armaments to the basis of 1932 and agreement to replace the disarmament clauses of the Versailles Treaty.

M. Flandrin is reported to have offered French planes to defend Britain.

SECRET DOSSIER

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, February 3, 4.50 p.m.)

Paris, Feb. 3. Although the Paris press is reserved in their comments on the progress of the London discussions, all papers agree that the most important event on Saturday was the hastily-summoned British Cabinet meeting.

Authority is claimed for stating that despite "considerable surprise" occasioned by the unexpected production by the French General Staff of the secret dossier on German armaments, it was not this document but rather the French desire for a Franco-British air convention which was the immediate cause of the Cabinet session.

One of the papers stated that the French plan consists of putting the French air force at Great Britain's disposal in case she is attacked, providing Great Britain assume the same obligation towards France in respect of her land and sea forces.

STRICTEST SECRECY (Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, February 3, 7.30 p.m.)

London, Feb. 2. The strictest secrecy is being maintained in official circles about the negotiations between the French and the British ministers. The official communiqué issued on Friday night purposely conceals more than it reveals concerning the matters on which the public is eagerly awaiting information. Though Saturday morning's papers devoted column after column to the French Ministers' visit they did not deal with the conference, referring chiefly to the speculation as to the probable outcome of the conversations and the suggestions about the course the ministers might take.

The diplomatic correspondent of the "Morning Post" appears to be the best informed, probably from French sources, declaring that, as already foreshadowed by Transocean, the basis of discussion on Friday was the English proposal first made by the British Ambassador to Paris that Section V of the Versailles Treaty containing the clauses about disarmament by Germany should be annulled, thus restoring her equality rights by implication, while Germany should be induced to return to the disarmament convention. The "Morning Post" says that, according to the British view, this is the only way the five-power pact of December, 1932, promising Germany equality, can be made effective. The paper further declares that before leaving Paris the French Ministers had accepted this solution in principle.

FACT OBSTACLE

The chief obstacle appears to be that France still clings tenaciously to the idea of obtaining Germany's signature to the East Locarno Pact which, in British quarters, is not enthusiastically approved. In this regard all newspapers emphasised that France does not wish the East Locarno Pact to cover aerial warfare.

The "Times" declares that the first day's talks enabled the French Ministers to understand the British standpoint which briefly is that the safety and equality questions must be dealt with simultaneously. At all events it seems established that Friday's deliberations have convinced all present that Germany must not be placed before the fait accompli.

The next formal session will be on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Meanwhile M. Flandrin conversed with several leading personalities of the city of London about the desired stabilisation of sterling and the dollar and will spend the week-end with the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, when the whole problem will be thrashed out.

order to review the present situation in the light of recent events and to consider the question of whether any alteration in general lines of policy has been rendered necessary.

The result of the conversation was the arrival at the conclusion that as various sub-committees appointed by the League will be meeting shortly, there is no reason for making any change in the procedure already determined upon.

ARABS ATTACK POLICE

Serious Affray In Algeria

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, February 3, 7.30 p.m.)

Paris, Feb. 3. A French police station was stormed and its inmates either killed or seriously wounded in the Algerian town of Setif, in the course of serious disturbances in a notorious part of the native quarter.

Beginning as a simple affray in the streets between native soldiers and Arabs, sanguinary rioting developed as soon as the French police appeared on the scene, the Arabs leaving their opponents and attacking the police with such fury that within a short time the entire military had to be called out and they only succeeded in quelling the riots after fighting several hours.

The work of restoring order was aggravated by the fact that part of the native police, instead of coming to the aid of the French, made common cause with the crowd and joined in the assault.

Rome, Feb. 3. ## LINDBERGH BABY CASE EVIDENCE

Nervous Woman Carrying A Blonde Baby

Flemington, Feb. 2.

Evidence that he saw two men cross the Hudson River from New Jersey to New York at 12.40 on the day after the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby in 1932 and assist a woman with a blonde baby on board a tram, was given by Peter Sommer of New York. A further sensation was caused at the afternoon session when a fingerprint expert identified certain photographs shown him by the defence, announcing that the photographs were those of Isidore Fish and Violet Sharpe, the servant of the Lindberghs who committed suicide.

The witness Peter Sommer said that he boarded the same tram as the woman who was very nervous and as if ready to jump out every time the tram stopped.

The baby was covered with a blanket, which slipped, disclosing a child wearing a one-piece garment. Sommer stated that he reported the matter to the police on learning of the kidnapping next morning.

Mr. Wilentz, cross-examining, attacked the evidence vigorously and showed Sommer a photo of Violet Sharpe. "Asked if it was the woman he saw, Sommer refused to say 'yes' or 'no' and likewise refused to answer a similar question regarding the photograph of the man."

Sommer was still on the witness stand when the Court adjourned until Monday.

AGREEMENT AT TATAN

Non-Aggression In Disputed Area

Peiping, Feb. 3.

Mr. Chang Yueh Ting, chief Chinese delegate to the Tatan conference, returned to Peiping this morning.

Interviewed, he said that the conference lasted fifteen minutes and that no document was signed. A purely verbal agreement was reached which pledges both sides to non-aggression in the disputed area wherein neither side will station troops.

He added that the civil administration in the area will remain in the hands of the Chahar Government.

The agreement thus appears to have made the disputed area a demilitarised zone similar to Luan-tung.

Mr. Chang Yueh Ting states that the agreement related only to military matters. There were no political understandings whatever.

EDDIE CANTOR'S HUGE INCOME

Highest-Paid Public Entertainer

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 12. Eddie Cantor, who has arrived in London from Paris for a number of years, enjoyed the reputation of being the highest-paid public entertainer in the world.

His yearly income is impossible to compute, but, including his revenue from film work, broadcasting, gramophone records, the endorsement of advertised products and personal tours, the total is staggering.

Just before sailing for Europe recently, for instance, he had completed a 28-week broadcasting contract for a coffee company, for which he received £1,600 for one broadcast a week.

£50,000 Down for a Picture. The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Corporation is reported to pay him £50,000 cash for one picture plus a percentage of the gross takings. How much extra this percentage must bring him is indicated by the fact that in the British Isles alone four of his recent pictures are credited with earnings of over £600,000.

The personal appearance tours which he makes from time to time are particularly remunerative. A recent appearance in Brooklyn brought him nearly £2,500 in a single week.

ASSISTANCE TO SHIPPING

British Scheme For Tramps

London, Feb. 1.

The House of Commons passed the third reading of the Government Bill to assist, by way of subsidy, owners of British tramp ships to meet the competition of foreign subsidised vessels, and to provide for assistance, by loans on special terms, to British shipowners to improve their merchant fleets.

The President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Walter Runciman, said the Government hoped the steps being taken by shipowners internationally to adjust supply to demand might achieve their object, and that foreign Governments would be led to give up uneconomic subsidies.

Britain would, of course, co-operate, but in the meantime she would make it quite clear that in so far as those countries gave artificial assistance to their merchant fleets, Britain would have to proceed with the proposals in the Bill and would provide in the current year a £2,000,000 subsidy.

Reviewing the practice in other countries, he said that in 1932-33 the United States paid £5,000,000 in ship subsidies, Italy £3,000,000 and Japan £1,000,000. If subsidised competition had continued without corresponding action here, Britain would, in the event of future war, be in a perilous position. Only by having immense numbers of units, and vessels of the fastest type, could she hold her own. He announced the names of the Subsidy Committee, house Chairman will be Sir Thomas Thompson.

ELECTORAL REFORM

Democratic Aim In Russia

Moscow, Feb. 2.

Proposals for electoral reform by the Central Committee of the Communist Party will be submitted to the seventh congress now holding at Kremlin. They will necessitate changes in the constitution of the Soviet Union if adopted. A semi-official statement says the aim of the proposals is to obtain democratisation of the electoral system.

A closed or secret ballot would supersede the old method of voting at open meetings by a show of hands. It is proposed that delegates to the All Union Congress be elected directly by the people instead of indirectly. There will also be equal representation throughout the country instead of the old system whereby one delegate was elected for very 25,000 of workers and one for every 125,000 peasants in the rural districts.

M. Mikoyan, Commissar of food, and Vlas Jacobevitch, one of the vice-presidents of the council of People's commissars, have been elected to the vacancies in the Political Bureau caused by the deaths of M. Kirov and Kulyshyev.

THE HEART OF A GOOD COCKTAIL

TEN BEST NEWS STORIES

What Interests America

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 12. A list of America's "ten best news stories in 1934," compiled by the Associated Press news agency has been published.

First place is given to the arrest of Bruno Hauptmann in connection with the Lindbergh kidnapping. Other American stories on the list are:

Shooting of the gangster Dillinger;
Burning of the Morro Castle;
Democrats' election victory;
San Francisco general strike;
and
Trial of Samuel Insull.

The list seems to show America's broadening interest in affairs abroad. Four of 1934's "best ten" were foreign stories. In 1933 only one (Hitler's rise to power) was deemed worthy of the list.

Germany figures again in this year's list, the "purge" of June 30 being classed as the third biggest story of 1934.

The assassination of King Alexander is placed second on the list, and that of Dollfus fifth.

Few readers on this side of the Atlantic will guess America's other outstanding foreign story. It is the birth and survival of the Dionne quintuplets.

This event is placed sixth on the list—above the Morro Castle, the Democratic victory, the San Francisco strike and the Insull trial. Britain must be accounted happy in having had no history (in American eyes) during 1934. This country furnishes none of the ten biggest stories, and in a long list of "other outstanding stories" England figures only incidentally as starting-point of the Melbourne air race.

Sequel To Disaster Off Korea

The Tung An Steamship Company, Foochow Road, Shanghai, has been sealed by the First Special District Court because of its alleged illegal procedure in carrying on business and non-registration with the Navigators' Association.

Further official actions are expected to be taken as the Chinese authorities have petitioned Nanking for instructions.

The closure of the shipping firm is the direct result of the sinking of the s.s. Tung Fu, belonging to the company, more than a month ago near Korea. It is reported that more than 50 people perished with the ship but the company so far has done very little in the way of compensation for the relatives of dead members of the crew.

The manager of the shipping firm has failed in obtaining the insurance money from an insurance firm in Japan.

The company distributed $1,200 to relatives of the crew of the ill-fated ship, but this did not satisfy them.

INTERPORT SOCCER TO-DAY

Keen Tussle Expected

(By "PIVOT")

During the week end there was no senior league games and all attention and interest was centred on the arrival of the Shanghai footballers.

They were met by officials of the Hong Kong Football Association, pressmen and representatives of different clubs when the Empress of Canada berthed at the Kowloon Wharf on Saturday morning.

The Shanghai boys had their first work out on the Recreation ground at King's Park on Saturday and everything pointed to a well balanced team that is going to give Hong Kong a run for the game. Though most of the players are of short stature they all carry a hefty kick with them and their ball control and distribution speaks volume for them.

Ward the custodian is one of the tallest member of the team and seldom did a high shot beat him in Saturday's practice. Of the ground shots I cannot say the same.

The backs, Lin Ning and Shute, are a formidable pair. Their first time connection with the father is always well timed.

Marcel playing as a Third back, also impressed.

Remedios, the skipper, showed little, being mostly taken up with improving the players in their little faults.

H. P. Chen gave an impressive display of ball distribution and his passes always found their objective.

Symons and Madar were not much seen but both gave an indication that they meant business and can fully be relied upon.

Faracho centred very well and accurately and Hong Kong will have to watch him very closely.

Collaco was very fast, and carried with him a deadly shot. E. P. Chen will be another menace to the Hong Kong defence and he too will bear close watching.

Bolsseree has a powerful left footed drive and kicks well with both feet.

L. Greenberg was not very encouraging on the left. Perhaps being new to it, but anyway his centres fell short of expectation.

N. Z. Lee was not seen in action.

PEN SKETCHES OF SHANGHAI TEAM

W. WARD (A.S.F.). The tallest member of the team. Has a good anticipation and seldom left a high shot pass him. Rather weak on the ground. Was brought in at the last minute.

J. SHUTE (Police). Plays for the Shanghai Police. A steady and reliable back although not very sensational.

LI NING (Tungwa). A medium built man and kicks heavily with his left. Clever and tricky back and knows a trick or two.

E. MARCAL (A.S.F.). A great shadower and tackler. Has shown consistent form through out the season. An ideal partner for Li Ning.

H. R. CHEN (Tungwa). A clever tackler and a player who rarely puts his foot wrongly to the ball. A great half back.

C. REMEDIOS (A.S.F.). Great at half back whether at centre or on the wing. A stickler and clever player. Should prove a thorn in Hong Kong's attack.

H. P. MADAR (Recs.). An experienced half. Played footer for a long time and is still good at it. Will most probably play to-day.

A. SYMONS (Recs.). An excellent substitute to Stanley Gash. His defensive work is always linked up with the attack. An excellent half.

R. FAVACHO (A.S.F.). Has no equal in the right wing position in Shanghai. Has speed and ball control. Beautiful centres and a man Hong Kong is going to see a lot of in the game.

H. COLLACO (Lustano). Quite at home either in the inside right or centre forward positions. Deadly shot and possess good constructive knowledge.

A. BOISSERIE (Lustano). Wing-er by rights, but will in all probability be seen in the inside left berth. Carries with him a very powerful left footed drive. A clever and tricky player when on the run.

Y. B. LI (Tungwa). Ex local player. Clever and has a swift turn of body. Scored when least expected. Quite and adept at both inside positions.

H. C. CHEN (Tungwa). Powerful shooter. Carries his pole well when on the run. Tricky.

L. GREENBERG (Jewish Club) Came into the team at the last minute. Kicks well with both feet. A player of great promise.

REFEREES FOR THE MATCHES

Sergt. E. G. Isley, who refereed both the Interport football trial games in a very capable manner, has been selected to referee the Interport match between Hong Kong and Shanghai this afternoon on the Club ground, commencing at 3 p.m. sharp. The linesmen will be C.Q.M.S. Hyde and Cpl. Twatles.

Petty Officer H. Holding, one of our better known referees, will control the game to-morrow between Shanghai and the Combined Chinese, while the linesmen will be Petty Officer Radall and Ldg. Seaman Foad.

S.B.P.O.—G. Shobbrook will referee the final game between the visitors and the United Services, while Y.O.S. Fernie and P. O. Jackson will run the touchlines.

LEAGUE FOOTBALL

SECOND DIVISION

In a fast and interesting game at Causeway Bay yesterday the Navy gained a convincing win over the Athletic in their Second Division soccer encounter, the final score being 4 goals to 1 in their favour.

The Chinese were never given time to settle down, and with a wet and slippery ground against their style of play, found it difficult to overcome the sterling defence put by Solomon and Moss, with McSweeney playing very confidently behind them.

The Navy scored two quick goals in succession, Dodds covered a penalty and O'Donnell ran through on his own.

Just before the interval Chinese reduced the deficit through Lo Wai Keun but not long after Glass crash the ball past the Chinese custodian from 5 yards out.

After the interval Navy attacked and the play was all theirs; Glass added the fourth goal.

Eastern were no match for the Fusiliers. From the start the soldiers dominated the play and when the final whistle sounded the soldiers were nine goals to the good. Bumster (3), Evans (2), Coakley (2), Parry and McHugh were the marksmen.

THIRD DIVISION

In a third division encounter the Police were unlucky to have lost to the Fusiliers by the odd goal in three.

The Police scored first through Chan Chau before the interval. After the resumption the soldiers attacked and Singleton scored both their goals.

The Club de Recreo and the Air Force played a drawn game of two goals all. The game was very evenly contested. Play was quickly transferred from end to end. Santos and Campos scored for the Recs and Hubbard and Ewart for the Air Force.

HOCKEY- INTERPORTERS AT PRACTICE

Shanghai Ladies Beat H.K. Ladies

The Shanghai ladies hockey interport team was engaged in a friendly encounter with the Hong Kong ladies, champions of the local Caer Clark Cup tournament at Sookunpoo on Saturday, and though not being too impressive (most likely due to their strangeness of local field and light), ran out victors by the one goal scored during the first twenty minutes of play. Miss C. Nichols' playing at inside-right, was the scorer.

Against a side that had been playing together during this present season, whose combination was sound and understanding good, the Shanghai interport side gave a good account of themselves by this triumph of theirs, which will undoubtedly serve as an inspiration to them in the interport game with local eleven.

On the form of play exhibited by the Northerners, the weakness of the side lay on the intermediate line, but their two backs were best ever seen in local hockey. Their combination was not as sound as the champions of the local league, but they had a very useful inside trio. Miss D. Eardley is a constructive leader with a fine sense of distribution, and has a fine turn of speed, but she lacks the sense of breaking suddenly through. Miss Eardley showed good combination with Miss Collaco and Miss C. Nichols. J. Raeburn playing at left wing, showed speed and her passes were most accurate.

The Game

At the commencement of the match, play was scrappy when players were often penalised for sticks but as the game progressed it showed an improvement.

Miss Ephgrave was tested pretty often, but her saves were not impressive, she had the habit of using stick too often, and very seldom used her legs.

Misses M. Gray and J. Smalley playing at back for the champions were outstanding, stopping many prominent movements of the Shanghai forwards who in the second half were constantly attacking.

After twenty minutes' play, Miss Nichols scored the only goal of the match when Miss Hence, the Hong Kong custodian, cleared with her stick, but the ball struck Miss Nichols' pads, who was following up, and she shot the ball into the net with a soft tap.

The game was refereed by Messrs. G. T. Palmer and P. J. Barlow and the teams were lined up as follows:—

Shanghai: G. Ephgrave (Ex-S.P.G.); P. Bomko (Ex-S.P.G.); and E. Vical (J.A.C.); E. Bloomfield (Sportsgirls); H. Gunther (German H.C.) and C. Gets (Sportsgirls); H. Collaco (J.A.C.); C. Nichols (Sportsgirls); D. Eardley, A. Collaco (J.A.C.) and J. Raeburn (Amazons).

Hong Kong Ladies: B. Hance; E. M. Gray; and J. Smalley; N. McKenna, B. M. Pope and B. Heibling; J. Marsh, Mrs. P. M. Harrop, M. Smalley, C. Ferguson and A. Jacks.

CHANGES OF TEAMS AND TIME

The match in which the Shanghai Ladies' team will meet the Rest of the Colony this afternoon on the Y.M.C.A. ground at King's Park has been changed to be played in the morning at 11.30 a.m. This change was made because it will enable the Shanghai ladies to watch the Interport Soccer match.

Miss Blumenthal will be playing at left-wing in place of the injured Miss M. Remedios in the Rest of the Colony side this morning and, Miss Heibling will take Miss Blumenthal's place in the half back line.

Three changes have been made in the Shanghai eleven, Miss H. Collaco having strained her side in Saturday's game, her position will be filled by Miss Peggy da Silva.

The other changes made in the visitors' line-up were Miss Nellie Becks coming in at centre-half in place of Miss Gunther, and Miss Winnie Ambrose displacing Miss Geis at left-half.

The revised teams are:— Rest of Colony: B. Hance (H.K. Ladies); F. K. Walker (C.B.A.) and A. Fowler (Y.M.C.A.); E. Beavis (C.B.A.); M. Xavier (Recreo); (captain), and B. Heibling (H.K. Ladies); M. Marsh (H.K. Ladies); P. Giffins (St. Andrew's); Mrs. P. M. Harrop (H.K. Ladies); C. Ferguson (H.K. Ladies); and B. Blumenthal (Y.M.C.A.).

LOCAL CHINESE WINS RACE AT MELBOURNE

It is learned that Kwok Chung-hang, the local Chinese swimming breast-stroke star, who is at present competing with swimmers of Melbourne, won the 100 yards handicap breast-stroke event at Bendigo on January 28.

Yesterday's victory was the third in a row for the Chinese star. Previously he had won the Victorian 100 yards breast-stroke championship and the Centenary 100 metres breast-stroke title.

The visitors were through him. Reed at the pivot position played a good game, while for the losers, Bezeley and Heath were impressive.

It was not until after 20 minutes that the United opened the scoring through Court after running solo through the defence. There was no further scoring.

After the interval, Cassey netted three more goals in quite rapid succession.

20th Battery Beat Police Juniors At the Police Training School ground on Saturday afternoon, the Hong Kong Police Juniors were defeated by the only goal scored in a friendly match against the 20th Battery, Royal Artillery.

HONG KONG WIN AT MACAO

The Interport Hockey Match

The Interport Hockey Match between Hong Kong and Macao was played off yesterday at the latter port and resulted in a victory for Hong Kong by three goals to one thanks to the fine defensive work put up by Dulla Singh and Co., and the fine and effective combination of the local left flank.

The Macao boys bullied off attacking. Ramalho was prominent. Play was fast and furious with the Macao team attacking hotly. Angelo on the left was putting in some fine centres and Reed (W) had a hard time in dealing with this tricky player.

Eventually Angelo from a pass off the centre forward and after tricking a couple of Hong Kong defenders scored with a well timed shot to put Macao one ahead.

Not to be daunted Hong Kong retallied strongly and the half time whistle found the score still in Macao's favour.

After the change over a different complexion came over the game. Life was put into the Hong Kong attack and at the same time the defence had Macao mastered.

The Singhs in the Hong Kong forward line played and combined very well together and were instrumental in equalling. Before long Hong Kong was one ahead and later Lal Singh added the third.

The teams were: Macao: Alameda, J. Rodrigues and M. Cardoso. A. Airoso, J. Ferreira and Lino Ferreira; F. Nolasco, L. Costa, F. Ramalho, H. Rosario and A. Angelo.

Hong Kong: A. Hollingsworth; N. W. Metcalf and A. M. Rodrigues; W. A. Reed, Dulla Singh and Alaf Din; G. E. R. Divett, C. C. Garthwaite, Gurbachan Singh, Kartar Singh and Lal Singh.

MARRIED MEN'S BALL AT C.C.C.

With suitable dance music supplied by "The Chocolaters," the Annual Married Men's Ball at the Craighower Cricket Club proved a great success on Saturday night. Over 150 people attended and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Mr. H. R. Latham was president of the ball.

WEEK-END CRICKET

Club Certain Champions Of
Senior League

All the grounds in the Colony were on the slow side, caused by the continuous drizzle during Saturday afternoon. Most of the League matches scheduled to be played were decided.

The tit-bit of the afternoon was the match between the Hong Kong Cricket Club and the Craignower, which resulted in the triumph for the former team, thus making quite certain of the club's chance of being champions of the League this season. The Happy Valley team, previous to this defeat by the Club had not met with any reverse this season, the two league games which they have played were both drawn.

In spite of the hitting out by A. P. Pereira, which resulted 24 not out, when he went in to bat last, the King's Park eleven lost to the University by 8 wickets at home.

In the Junior Division League, the Indian Recreation Club was once again checked, this time by the Royal Medical Corps. In not winning this game, they have considerably lessened their chances for the Junior honours—only a surprise reverse on the part of the R.A.S.C. who have so far drawn one league game and won all the others will put the Indians again in the running. The R.A.S.C. fared successfully when playing against the Navy at King's Park winning by 102 runs, which has made them potential champions.

SENIOR LEAGUE

H.K. C.C. v. C.C.C.
In a Senior Division League game played at the Valley in what was expected to be an exciting finish, the Hong Kong Cricket Club ran out easy victors over the Craignower.

RUBBER MARKET REVIEW

Singapore, Jan. 26.
Messrs. G. A. Harriman & Co., local agents for Messrs. Stanton Nelson & Co., Ltd., Singapore, have forwarded the following Rubber review:

The local market has been dull during the past week, following the tone of London and New York, where very little activity was displayed.

Interest has been focused on the December statistics for Malaya and the Dutch East Indies, the general results.

publication of which confirms the general opinion that the Control Scheme is being successfully administered by both governments.

The export quota for Malaya has apparently been harvested, though naturally the whole of it had not by 31st December left the Restriction Area, inside which the stocks covered by export rights to the extent of approximately 12,000 tons.

In the Dutch East Indies exports were in the neighbourhood of 2,000 tons within the permissible quota.

Both sets of statistics are subject to corrections, which should not, however, materially affect the general results.

SHANGHAI WIN RUGGER INTERPORT

Hong Kong Players Uneasy On Slippery Ground

Shanghai, Feb. 2.

Shanghai defeated Hong Kong by 17 points to 11 after leading 11-3 at half time in the Rugger Interport, thus recording the fourth win. Shanghai scored a goal, three tries and last minute penalty goal; Hong Kong one goal and two penalty goals.

L. G. Robertson, the Colony full-back, was easily the outstanding visitor, while McLellan, the Colony skipper, and Walkden, a front row-forward, starred among the Hong Kong forwards.

For Shanghai, Taylor, at full-back, McGill, the right wing three-quarter, and Bidwell, on the left-wing, were prominent.

An early morning drizzle made the ground very slippery and the ball very greasy, which accounted for much fumbling among the backs, chiefly on the part of the visiting team.

Hong Kong were generally superior in the scrums and were more often in the Shanghai territory, but their threequarters never got going.

Sensational Start
The game started sensationally, Taylor landing a great penalty goal from almost the half-way mark to give Shanghai a three points lead in the fifth minute of the game.

This was immediately followed by one of the most brilliant tries of the season, when Grieve ran through the Hong Kong team from the half-way line and sold the dummy twice before scoring for Bidwell to convert.

Fifteen minutes from the start of the game Shanghai went further ahead when Humphreys scored, following a forward rush, the bounce of the ball beating the defence. Bidwell failed to convert.

Just before the interval Hong Kong reduced the arrears when McLellan landed a penalty goal with a good kick, Shanghai leading 11-3.

Second Half
Hong Kong pressed from after the resumption and were again superior to Shanghai in the tight scrums, but their threequarters were unable to settle down.

After a passing bout McGill went over for another try, but Taylor failed to add to the score.

The visitors, undaunted by these reverses, fought back and were finally rewarded when a pass from Hutcheson, saw Munro go over the Shanghai line with two Shanghai defenders hanging on to him, Robertson converted.

Five minutes from the end Bidwell went over for an unconverted try in the corner, while in the last minute of the game Robertson landed a penalty goal.

HONG KONG CAPTAIN'S TRIBUTE*The Better Side Won

Shanghai, Feb. 3.

"Shanghai played a much better game than we did and her victory was well deserved," declared Mr. D. McLellan, captain of the visiting side, interviewed by Reuter. "I only wish we could have played McGillchrist and Riggs as they would have given us strength where we needed most."

Lammert, not Munro was responsible for Hong Kong's lone try yesterday when the visitors were awarded altogether eight penalties, but conditions were not good for kicking.

LATE NIGHT CABLES

The following cables were received on Saturday night by the American Oriental Finance Corporation and Messrs. S. E. Levy & Co.:

London Forecast

Cotton—The cotton is expected to open lower, owing to the report of the collapse of the debt negotiations and the threat of labour trouble which continue to disturb sentiment.

Stocks—All markets are expected to open stagnant pending the gold clause decision.

Wheat—Grains will be probably slightly lower. The weather is very mild in the southwest. There are no signs of the wanted moisture.

Rubber—The rubber market is expected to be lower in sympathy with the uneasiness which is prevailing in London.

A.O.F.C. New York Cables
Stocks—The market opened mixed and light, several large blocks changing hands on rising prices.

Cotton—Small liquidation and evening up for expected decision on Monday on the Gold Clause Case. The trade was taking the bulk of the sales.

Of the meetings held yesterday in an endeavour to deal with the situation one was held at the head office of one of the big banks. It is rumoured that a big group is prepared to take over the stocks provided the Dutch Government will agree to a restriction scheme.

The Dutch East Indies produce about 80 per cent of the world's rubber.

It is stated that negotiations are now proceeding at Amsterdam.

G. A. Harriman's Weekly Report

Hong Kong, Feb. 2.

Mr. G. A. Harriman's weekly share report and market review issued at noon states:-

We have to record a very quiet but very steady market during the week under review and owing to the proximity of the Chinese New Year the volume of business was a very meagre one. Investment issues were very steady with Trams done at $20.40/50, Electric at $70 1/2, Hong Kong Lands at $25.20/50, and Telephone (old) at $25.20/50. Wharves were in demand at $113 while Star Ferries had sellers at $99. Dairy Farms were rather neglected with shares offering at $24.20. Minor offering at $24.20. Minor issues were also steady with Hotels changing hands at $5.00/5.10. Lights at $9.90/10.00 and Cements at $2.00. Providents (old) remained unchanged with buyers at $12.25. In the sterling section, Hong Kong Banks were a shade easier with shares on offer at $15.40, but Unions remained in demand at $485. At the close the tone of the market is very steady and it is anticipated that we will have a better market after the Chinese New Year holidays.

We take this opportunity of tendering our Chinese clients and readers our best wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year. Business during the week has been done at the following prices:-

Union Insurances, $490.
Underwriters, $1.25.
Hotels, $5-5.110.
Hong Kong Lands, $50-750.
Hong Kong Trams, $20.40/20.50.
Hong Kong Electric, $70 1/2.
China Lights, $9.90/10.
Telephones (old), $25.20/25.4.
Cements, $2.
Gold Rivers, etc.

SHANGHAI MARKET COMMENT

January 30, 1935.

Better business was done in the Shanghai Stock Market last Tuesday. The rubber share market was steady and in the general section the Shanghai Vacuum Cleaning, after a very long period of idleness, were done at 13.00 and Shanghai Waterworks 6 1/2. Preferred came to business at 16. City Loan 1932 improved to 96 and for the 1934 issue 93.50 was bid but no business was recorded. The debenture market was firm. Rates were unchanged on Wednesday and business for Thursday was of a negligible quantity. Trading was very dull on the next day with only 150 Trams "B" placed at 35.50, 3 Hong Kong & Shanghai Bank shares at HK $1,570, and in addition a few issues of Chinese Engineering and Mining, Caldwell MacGregor and Shanghai Telephone changed hands. With the approaching January settlement and the China New Year holidays, business on the local exchange was of a very limited character. The prices in the general market were unchanged and the only business recorded was 10 Telephone shares at 70 and 40, Shanghai Power 6 1/2. Preferred at 140 for cash. The rubber section was very quiet and no transaction of interest was registered in the debenture market. Outstanding items in the final half-session of Saturday were Ewos placed at 9.10, Shanghai Lands at 22.50 and Union Insurance at HK $485. Apart from a few deals recorded Monday was devoid of noteworthy trading. Bakelite "B" was done at 14/50, Shanghai Power 6 1/2 Preferred at 133.50 and 133.

Shanghai Telephone 6% debenture at 99, Shanghai Power 5 1/2% debentures at 92 and 1,500 Ewos at 9.10 for cash.

Mixed results were obtained during the week ended January 26. Despite the war scare in the North, the market only suffered from short periods of weakness. This fact was explained by the approaching end of January trading which held the hands of the bears and also forced short-coverers so that occasional rises were noted.
